Notice of Rights Regarding Requesting a Reconsideration of Value (ROV)

This notice describes your right to request a Reconsideration of Value (ROV) on an appraisal valuation of the property (if it is a 1-4 single family residence) obtained in connection with the loan for which you are applying.

What is a “ROV”?

A “Reconsideration of Value” or “ROV” is an appeal process where you can request, using the steps outlined in this notice, a review of and possible change to the appraiser’s valuation of your property.

If, after reviewing the appraisal report, you believe that the appraiser’s valuation may not accurately reflect the property’s actual market value, you may request a ROV by taking the steps outlined below. You are permitted to request one ROV per property appraisal.

When do I request a ROV?

After we receive an appraisal of your property, we will provide a copy of the appraisal report to you. At that time, we will provide you with another copy of this “Notice of Rights Regarding Requesting a Reconsideration of Value (ROV)”. You can request a ROV after reviewing the appraisal report.

Under what circumstances can I request a ROV?

After you review your property’s appraisal report, you have the right to request a ROV if any of the following occurs:

- You find the appraisal report contains inaccurate information.
- You identify other comparable property sales that were not included in the appraisal report. You may supply up to five additional comparable property sales.
- You have identified other important information that you believe may have impacted your property’s valuation, for example if you believe the valuation may reflect prohibited discriminatory practices.

NOTICE: The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or part of the applicant’s income derives from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The US Department of Justice takes the position that discriminatory appraisal practices violate the Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act.

How do I request a ROV?

To request a ROV, you must do the following:

- Contact the Bank at ROV@ubb-us.com to obtain the “Request for ROV” form.
- Fill out the “Request for ROV” form provided to you. Fill out the form entitled “Request for Reconsideration of Value (ROV)” that we provide. Fill the form out in its entirety, making sure to include all requested information.
- Collect and attach supporting information to the “Request for ROV” form. Provide information that supports your ROV request. This information could include:
 - Identification of any inaccuracies in the appraisal report;
 - Up to five additional comparable property sales that were not included in the appraisal and the related data sources (such as the MLS listing number); or
 - Documentation of any other important information that you believe may have impacted your property’s valuation.
- Submit the form and supporting information. Provide the ROV form and supporting information to us using the instructions on the ROV form.

After I submit a ROV request, what can I expect to happen?

Once we receive your request for a ROV, we will do the following:

- We will review your ROV request;
- If your request is incomplete or we need more information from you in order to initiate the ROV, we will contact you.
- We will then forward your ROV request to the appraiser.
- Once we receive the appraiser’s response, we will notify you.

How long does the ROV request process take?

Our policy is to review your ROV request and make a decision within 60 days of receiving your ROV request. However, please keep in mind that the actual timing may be impacted by the original appraiser’s response times. We promise to use our best efforts to process your ROV request as soon as possible because the ROV must be completed before your loan closing date.

Who do I contact for further questions?

If you have any questions regarding your rights to request a ROV or wish to request clarifications or corrections unrelated to the appraiser’s value conclusion, please contact ROV@ubb-us.com.
